Preston, Lancashire

Myerscough International Arena was opened in April 2003. Since then the venue has become one of the UK's top equestrian venues hosting a diverse spectrum of events in the first class facilities. The largest purpose built equestrian venue in the North West, the International Arena offers spectators and competitors very comfortable surroundings to fully enjoy their day.

The International Arena, offers a warm light arena with fixed heated spectator gallery seating for 400 with excellent back up facilities including;

- Main Arena 80m x 30m with connecting doors to:
- No 2 Indoor Arena 65m x 20m with gallery seating for 100
- Restaurant and fully licensed bar overlooking the Main Arena
- Fully equipped PA System and purpose built commentary box
- Additional outdoor surfaces and grass areas
- Reception area for event organisers
- Stabling (subject to availability)

Equestrian Events

The variety of events held includes:

- Premier League Dressage
- Showing Championships for several Regional and National Organisations
- British Dressage Northern Winter Semi Finals
- Show Jumping at all levels
- Dressage at all levels
- Showing Shows
- Carriage Driving
- Pony Club Activities
- Local, Regional and National training programmes

Non-Equestrian Events

These include:

- Expo, a regional interactive careers exhibition with over 10,000 visitors
