My success

From student to Mounted Police Groom Rachel Lawson

I always dreamed of working for the Mounted Police and completing the Level 3 Extended Diploma, followed by the BA (Hons) in Equine Management, gave me the chance to pursue my ambitions.

Since graduating, I've worked at various livery, stud and competition yards as a groom and I have also been a yard manager at a trekking centre, from which I moved on to become a Mounted Police Groom for Lancashire Constabulary.

I gained the practical and theoretical skills at Myerscough that really helped me stand out in my interview for the Mounted Branch.

The wide range of horses on site allowed me to continue to develop my riding ability and my knowledge in regards to identifying the strengths and weaknesses of each horse. The yard hours are invaluable, as not only are you taught the most efficient way to complete tasks, but also how to work to a high standard and to be proud of your work.

I will always be grateful to the staff at Myerscough who are wonderfully supportive and knowledgeable with tremendous connections to the industry, which really helped open the door for me to employment.
